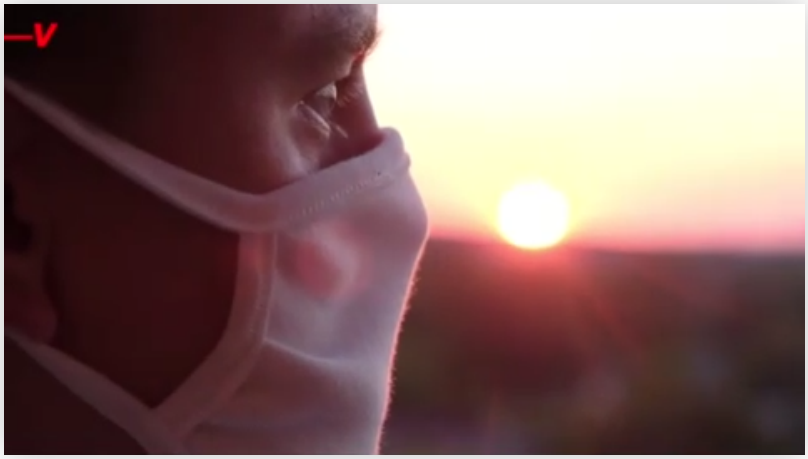
Thousands of Fake Doctors and Nurses Exposed In Covid-19 'Murder For Money' Scheme

Fact checked

The COVID-19 murder for money scheme in hospitals across the US appears, in many cases, to have been carried out by fake doctors and nurses, according to anti-corruption attorney Thomas Renz.



His statement follows the arrest of over two dozen people by the Department of Justice (DOJ) in connection with a plan to sell fake nursing degrees and transcripts from legitimate institutions in the years leading up to the Covid pandemic.

More than 7,600 fraudulent nursing degrees were granted by three nursing schools in South Florida. These institutions were Siena College in Broward County, Palm Beach School of Nursing in Palm Beach County, and Sacred Heart International Institute in Broward County. These schools are now closed.

According to DOJ, each defendant faces up to 20 years in prison.

"Not only is this a public safety concern, it also tarnishes the reputation of nurses who actually complete the demanding clinical and course work required to obtain their professional licenses and employment," said U.S. Attorney for the Southern District of Florida Markenzy Lapointe, who added that "a fraud scheme like this erodes public trust in our health care system."

"Health care fraud is nothing new to South Florida, as many scammers see this as a way to earn easy, though illegal, money," s Yarbrough, FBI Miami. "What is distur 7,600 people around the country with in critical health care roles treating pa of the investigators on this case, the ex

"The alleged selling and purchasing of unqualified individuals is a crime that potentially endangers the health and safety of patients and insults the honorable profession of nursing," said Special Agent in Charge Omar Pérez Aybar of Department of Health and Human Services, Office of Inspector General (HHS-OIG). "In coordination with our law enforcement partners, HHS-OIG continues to aggressively investigate bad actors who so brazenly disregard the well-being of others in order to enrich themselves fraudulently."

Recall, DOJ charged 18 people including doctors in massive Covid healthcare fraud takedowns last month.

"The Department of Justice today announced criminal charges against 18 defendants in nine federal districts across the United States for their alleged participation in various fraud schemes involving health care services that exploited the COVID-19 pandemic and allegedly resulted in over $490 million in COVID-19 related false billings to federal programs and theft from federally funded pandemic programs," DOJ said in a news release.
